

UPCOMING AP ENGLISH LIT ACTIVITIES

Finish answering the Frankenstein discussion questions

Finish reading the Frankenstein play

Compare the novel to the play – create a questionnaire for a peer

Discuss/evaluate the criticism essays – create and answer five questions of your own

Begin mini-research projects on topics, such as:

The Renaissance

The Age of Reason

The Romantics

Gothic Literature

The Victorians

The Turn of the 20th Century

Realism

Surrealism

Multiculturalism

Deconstruction

Feminist Criticism

Marxist Criticism

Psychoanalytic Criticism

Northrop Frye

Camille Paglia

Comparative Literature

The Influence of the Bible on English Literature

The Influence of Specific Greek Tragedies on Later Drama and Literature

Aristotle's Poetics and Tragedy – Revisited

Mythology and Literature – Revisited from Summer Reading and Taken Beyond

The American Dream and Literature

Modern Literature in the English-speaking Colonies

Read The Book of Job and write in dialectical journals

Get an exam-prep folder with tips, outlines, sample essays and a personal essay plan

TAKE PRACTICE AP EXAM ON SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 2009 FROM 10AM-2PM

After Spring Break: Do a time-write a day, M-Th, and multiple choice Q's on Friday

Read additional titles from the syllabus

Attend the Renaissance Faire on Sunday, May 17, 2009 with Ms. Keast and...