

American Literature Quiz 2

On a Scantron, bubble in the best answer for each of the following questions.

1. The following is the focus for this year's curriculum

- A. What it means to be an American
- B. The American Dream as it has been portrayed in literature
- C. Fiction and non-fiction texts written by a variety of American authors from America's inception to now.
- D. none of the above
- E. A, B and C

2. Which is a list of terms that you must know in order to successfully complete a "Reader's Companion?"

- A. irony, ambiguity, nuance, tone, juxtaposition
- B. summary, theme, set-up, rising action, climax and resolution
- C. genre, point of view, setting, plot
- D. both B and C

3. The central theme of a text is

- A. the main lesson learned by the protagonist by the end of the story
- B. the author's purpose
- C. the author's message
- D. both A and B
- E. both A and C

4. The tone of a text is

- A. the reader's attitude toward the author
- B. the author's attitude toward the subject matter of the text, the characters of the text, and/or the reader of the text
- C. the mood of the reader when experiencing the text
- D. none of the above

5. The following excerpt is written from which point of view?

It was hard for him to understand that he actually had to abandon it – it was ridiculous – and he began to curse. Of all the papers on his desk, why did it have to be this one in particular?!

- A. third person objective, whereby the characters' words and actions are reported but thoughts and feelings are not
- B. first person, whereby the narrator speaks directly about his or her own life
- C. second person
- D. third person limited, whereby the thoughts and feelings of the protagonist are exposed and focused on
- E. none of the above

6. Symbolism is

- A. when one thing is compared to another thing, exactly like a simile
- B. when a material object represents an abstract idea, like a bird representing freedom, a fish representing life or the color green representing envy
- C. used to add layers of depth and meaning to a text
- D. both A and C
- E. both B and C

7. A student of literature should be aware of which three types of irony?

- A. verbal, physical and circumstantial
- B. sarcastic, sardonic and situational
- C. dramatic, situational and verbal
- D. dramatic, presentational and obsolete
- E. none of the above

8. The definition of dramatic irony is

- A. when a character has a change of heart and no one but the character knows about it
- B. when the reader or audience knows something about a character and his situation that the character doesn't know
- C. when something surprising happens to the character that was not even foreshadowed
- D. when you say one thing but mean another, as in sarcasm
- E. none of the above

9. The definition of verbal irony is

- A. when a character has a change of heart and no one but the character knows about it
- B. when the reader or audience knows something about a character and his situation that the character doesn't know
- C. when something surprising happens to the character that was not even foreshadowed
- D. when you say one thing but mean another, as in sarcasm
- E. none of the above

10. Which of the following sentences aptly exemplifies situational irony?

- A. a bus-boy who drops dishes five days in a row gets fired
- B. a sheep who complains about being shaved for his wool later opens his own sweater shop
- C. a man steps on a rusty nail
- D. a woman who is an active member of the organization Guns are Bad works hard to stop the sale of guns

11. The meaning of the word metaphor is

- A. a comparison between two things, drawing attention to their similarities, e.g., "love is a battlefield"
- B. a comparison between two things, drawing attention to their similarities, e.g., "school is prison"
- C. the comparison of two unlike things, using "like" or "as"
- D. both A and B
- E. A, B and C

12. The significance of the word oxymoron is

- A. a term or phrase that is like an analogy but is not really
- B. a clause that begins with a subordinator
- C. a term or phrase that contains two similar elements, for example: hard rock
- D. a comparison between two things, drawing attention to their similarities
- E. a term or phrase that is made of two opposing elements, for example: cold hotplate

13. An example of an idiom is

- A. It takes one to know one.
- B. It's raining cats and dogs.
- C. B only
- D. both A and B

14. Which of the following exemplifies hyperbole?

- A. I told you a thousand times...
- B. You are sometimes mistaken.
- C. He is often right.
- D. both A and C
- E. none of the above

15. What is the typical plot structure of a narrative?

- A. exposition; rising action; climax; falling action; denouement
- B. set-up; rising action; climax; resolution
- C. beginning, middle, end
- D. all of the above
- E. none of the above

Read the following poem and answer four related questions that follow.

April 18 by Sylvia Plath

the slime of all my yesterdays rots in the hollow of my skull and if my stomach would contract because of some explicable phenomenon such as pregnancy or constipation

I would not remember you or that because of sleep infrequent as a moon of green cheese that because of food nourishing as violet leaves that because of these and in a few fatal yards of grass in a few spaces of sky and treetops a future was lost yesterday as easily and irretrievably as a tennis ball at twilight

16. The tone of the poem is arguably

- A. subtle
- B. angry
- C. humorous
- D. satirical

17. The diction, or word choice, of the poem helps to create the dark tone. Which of the following words least supports this dark tone?

- A. slime
- B. nourishing
- C. constipation
- D. fatal

18. The author's tone is further intensified by which other literary device?

- A. imagery
- B. happenstance
- C. onomatopoeia
- D. prose
- E. all of the above

19. Which verb tense and/or mood is NOT used in the poem?

- A. future
- B. past
- C. conditional
- D. present

20. Which of the following is NOT an American author and will therefore not be on our reading list this year?

- A. John Steinbeck
- B. Christopher Marlowe
- C. William Shakespeare
- D. both A and B
- E. both B and C

21. Which of the following is an American author who will be on our list?

- A. Pablo Neruda
- B. Luis J. Rodriguez
- C. Gabriel Garcia Márquez
- D. all of the above
- E. none of the above

22. Creation myths are

- A. stories that explain how the world came into being
- B. stories that explore the relationship between humans and the divine
- C. stories that no longer have any relevance since science can explain absolutely everything quite sufficiently
- D. numerous and varied, as people from different cultures hold divergent beliefs
- E. A, B and D

23. A great vehicle for telling your own story is

- A. a private personal journal
- B. digital storytelling software
- C. friendly conversation
- D. poetry
- E. all of the above

24. The site where you can go to find out if you have any English homework is

- A. schoolrocks.com
- B. webstaclenoose.com
- C. webstaclecouse.com
- D. akittelton@teach.com
- E. none of the above