

Figurative Language La La La La La

Sung to the tune of "The Farmer in the Dell"

A metaphor is a peach
A simile's like a peach
An oxymoron's an appleorange
An idiom is "That guy is bananas!"

La la la la la la
La la la la la la
La la la la la la la la
Is an example of onomatopoeia

You always use hyperbole
You never use hyperbole
Why can't you use hyperbole
To start an exaggerated argument?

La la la la la la
La la la la la la
La la la la la la la la
Is an example of onomatopoeia

The clouds clamor and cry
The sea waves dare to die
The treetops look down on me
And wonder if they're personified

La la la la la la
La la la la la la
La la la la la la la la
Is an example of onomatopoeia

Figurative language is not literal
And is sometimes lost on the youth
It redefines the world we see
So we understand the truth

La la la la la la
La la la la la la
La la la la la la la la
Is an example of onomatopoeia

Or is it?
