Rules and Procedures:

- Be in your seat working when the bell rings.
- No I-pods, cell phones, calculators or other electronic devices may be in use or on at any time, unless required by the instructor.
- The instructor reserves the right to require the removal of any hoods, hats and/or scarves that are deemed to be a distraction to the learning process.
- Because one fourth of your grade is based on positive class participation, defiance and/or blatant disrespect, which are the antithesis of positive class participation, may negatively impact your grade. Stated another way, if you are on time and on task you are earning an easy “A.”
- Ask on-topic questions in an appropriate way at the prescribed times during class. If your questions are not adequately answered during class, feel free to visit Ms. Kittelson in her classroom after school, or write her a note. You may place your notes on her desk, or you may e-mail her at akittelson@gusd.net.
- Absolutely no gum, candy, food or beverages are to be consumed by students in class.
- Sharpen pencils before class and have covered sharpeners and lead available. Remember, you are partially graded on your ability to stay focused.
- Additional procedures are outlined throughout the summer in class and on the classroom Web site: www.webstaclecourser.com
